FAIR In the face of greatly increased expenses in every direction this school has not advanced its tuition rates and does not intend to do so.

The demand for our high-grade instruction made it necessary for us to turn away a number of applicants last year, and we could have easily increased our prices, but we did not wish to take advantage of a 'situation."

There will be no increase in cost, but if you delay you may be too late to enroll at all. If you cannot begin immediately—make arrangements today and have a place reserved. Ten expert instructors in charge of our various departments.

telling of the substantial completion of wheat threshing. Within a few weeks, therefore, it should be possible for the statisticians at Washington to publish figures which will show substantially what the wheat harvest of 1919 amounts to, measured by bushels. There appears to be hope that the figures will put the number of bushels at a billion at the store of point Comfort.

It is a very great undertaking, the greatest of its kind in the world. No individual would be justified in venturing upon the cultivation of a 200,-000-acre farm. In no other way than by co-operate management behind which stands sufficient capital, in this case $2.000.000, would make the success-ful cultivation of so great a farm possible.
